

savethedate
Cambridge 08.10.19
Bolton 16.10.19

INTERPROFESSIONAL STUDY DAY

IMPROVING
 PATIENT OUTCOMES
 TOGETHER

10.00am Registration, product browsing and networking

10.30am WELCOME

10.40am Does what it says on the tin?

Medical device regulations and MHRA guidance.... From 2020 an overview... am I buying a product that is fit for purpose?

Graham Turner Vice President International Product Management and Marketing, Drive DeVilbiss Healthcare Ltd

11.00am Interprofessional solutions for the heavier patient Joined up equipment choices workshop

Julia Love RGN, ONC, Former Chair National Back Exchange. Co-Editor of the 6th Edition of the Handling of People series.

11.45am Beds are not just for sleeping...
 Optimising Clinical Patient Outcomes Through Bed Technology

Technology of beds and features that impact on clinical practise

Mark Collier B.A (Hons), RGN, ONC, RCNT, RNT. Independent TVN Consultant and Associate Lecturer

12.30pm Lunch Networking and product browsing

1.30pm One carer or two? Changing approaches to home care

Jan Healey Occupational Therapist Msc Ergonomics in Health and Community

2.15pm Seating biomechanics The impact of Assessment and guidelines workshop

Melanie Stephens DipNurs; BSc (Hons); MA; Doctoral Candidate. Senior Lecturer in Adult Nursing and IPE Lead at Salford University

Carol Bartley Occupational Therapist MSc Applied Ergonomics, Pg Cert Ergonomics Dip COT Lecturer in Occupational Therapy at Salford University

3.15pm Pressure Mapping in Practice

Understanding technical mapping versus mapping for assessment, staff and patient education for Tissue viability and Moving and Handling

Professor Michael Clarke PhD Welsh Wound Network Director. Professor in Tissue Viability, Birmingham City University

4.15pm Review of the day, feedback and evaluation.

4:30pm Close

* 08/10/19 11:45am session external speaker awaiting confirmation

Limited spaces available, please email events@drivedevilbiss.co.uk to reserve your place today.